RON TEMPLER (Director) has been a very active member of local theatre groups for many years. His reputation as both actor and director are well known. He has starred in productions of "Harvey", "Same Time, Next Year" and most recently in last season's "Our Town". He has directed many successful productions for Northumberland Players including "Jitters", "California Suite", "The Last of the Red Hot Lovers" and "The Mousetrap". Ron has studied direction with Theatre Ontario, and is currently assistant director for the upcoming production of "The Music Man".

NANCY LESTER (Catherine) has her first leading acting role after many successful ventures as a director. Her fine directing touch is credited for much of the success of her previous shows such as "Our Town", "Barefoot in the Park", and "6 Rms Riv Vu". In "Waiting for the Parade" she shows her talents extend to both sides of the theatrical footlights.

BETSEY STANLEY (Margaret) is one of Cobourg and areas fine actresses, although in the past she is best known for her work in comedies such as "See How They Run", "Barefoot in the Park" and "6 Rms Riv Vu". In "Waiting for the Parade" she shows an equal flair for drama in the role of Margaret.

LYNNE TEMPLER (Eve) makes her acting debut with the Players in this production. But her talents as a costume designer have been regularly on display in such musicals as "Cabaret", "Gypsy", "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum", and last season's "Hello Dolly!"

PAT CRIMMINS (Marta) also makes an impressive acting debut with Northumberland Players as Marta in "Waiting for the Parade". Audiences will hope to see her in future productions as well.

LANA POKOCKY (Janet) appeared as Miss Irene Malloy in "Hello, Dolly!" and in "Waiting for the Parade" has a chance to play a dramatic part, while still being able to display a fine talent as singer and pianist.

NORTHUMBERLAND PLAYERS acknowledge the assistance of Donna Todd, Garners Flowers, Glen Walker of CHEX Radio, Jim's Music and Variety, House of Fashion, Michael Pokocky, The Cobourg Motor Inn, Horizons of Friendship, Last Tango Nostalgia Clothes, Ann Hamilton, Beth Goldring and Verna Templer.

UPCOMING PRODUCTIONS FROM THE NORTHUMBERLAND PLAYERS

"THE SUNSHINE BOYS", by Neil Simon. The Broadway and movie hit about a long retired team of vaudeville comedians and their painful attempts at a reunion, is sure to entertain. The Northumberland Players production is a dinner theatre evening you will not want to miss. At the Cobourg Motor Inn on April 22, 23, 24, 29, 30 and May 1, 6, 7, and 8. Call the Motor Inn at 372-2105 now for reservations.

"THE MUSIC MAN", the delightful musical by Meredith Willson caps off our 1982-83 season. Marian the Librarian and a host of colourful characters along with songs like "Til There was You", "Gary, Indiana", and "The Wells Fargo Wagon" guarantee a wonderful production. Directed by Ruth Harcourt. May 27, 28, 29 and June 3, 4, and 5.

"RED SPY AT NIGHT", a one-act comedy directed by Terry Sutcliffe will be presented at the annual meeting of Northumberland Players at the Cobourg Motor Inn on Wednesday, March 9, 1983 at 8:00 p.m. Admission to this production free to all members of Northumberland Players. Why not join us – we encourage everyone to become involved in our organization and to support local theatre. Your $6.00 annual membership entitles you to our monthly newsletter full of advance notice of show audition dates, social events, and other items of interest. Memberships may be obtained at Woody's Smoke Shop, or by sending your name and address to Northumberland Players, Box 142, Cobourg.
